KEY CALENDAR FEATURES

MONSOON / SPRING SEMESTERS

The Monsoon and Spring semesters are each 19 weeks long and comprised of the following: three weeks of module courses at the start of the semester, fourteen weeks of regular courses (which includes mid-sem exam week), one week of mid-sem recess, and one week of final exams and juries. Excluding recess and finals week, this schedule delivers a total of 17 teaching weeks.

Convocation takes place approximately one week after the final Spring semester grades are submitted.

MIDTERMS AND FINALS

Mid-sem exam and juries week (midterms) takes place approximately seven weeks after regular classes start. A one-week mid-sem recess follows midterm exams. Final exams and juries take place the week immediately following the last day of classes. Final grades for all students must be submitted within one week of the last day of finals.

SUMMER SESSIONS

The Summer semester is approximately nine weeks long and is comprised of two four-week sessions separated by approximately a one-week of mid-sem recess. Courses in the Summer semester meet more frequently during the week than courses during the Monsoon and Spring semesters. There is a one-week recess between Summer 1 and Summer 2. A one-week Summer break takes place immediately after Summer semester classes end.

OBSERVED HOLIDAYS + BREAKS

No Classes are held on observed holidays (listed below). Classes that are missed due to holidays are made up on the next available Saturday. The Monsoon mid-sem recess includes Diwali and is one week long.

A weeklong mid-sem recess immediately follows midterm exams in the Monsoon and Spring semesters. A weeklong mid-sem recess follows the end of Summer session 1.

A two-week Winter break immediately follows the end of Monsoon semester finals. A two-week Spring break immediately follows the end of Spring semester finals. A one-week Summer break immediately follows the end of Summer session 2.
